

The FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF BROWNSVILLE, TEXAS

ESTABLISHED 1891

Capital $100,000

Surplus, $25,000

Our Aim in Business

WE DESIRE to make the First National the Bank of the People. The small depositor receives the same courteous treatment and consideration that is extended to the largest, within the limits of safe and conservative banking. Officers give personal attention to all details. Directors meet regularly and frequently, and keep closely in touch with the current business. Every safeguard known to safe and successful banking is availed of, and our past success is the best criterion by which to judge the security of the future.

THE FIRST NATIONAL is pre-eminently the Bank of the Frontier. Its stockholders belong here. Its interests are those of our best and most progressive citizens. We offer to our customers, present and prospective, the advantages of the largest capital and surplus of any bank in this section, and of the safe and conservative banking methods which have resulted in the successful building up of this bank in the past twelve years.

Its financial position is established, and the energy, experience and business ability, of the management will continue to be wholly directed to the maintenance and increase of these advantages.

OFFICERS:

William Kelly, Pres. S. L. Dworman, 1st Vice Pres.
W. M. Ratcliffe, 2d Vice Pres. A. Ashheim, Cashier
James B. Wells, Attorney

We Solicit the Patronage of All

OUR FUNDS are protected in a fire-proof vault and by the best safes to be obtained; and are further covered by insurance against burglary or daylight robbery. Our officers are under bond in the best surety companies.

People who intrust their money to a bank have a right to know its financial strength. We recognize this right and will cheerfully furnish any depositor a statement of our condition any day in the year. Absolute safety is the best thing we have to offer, and upon this basis your account is solicited.

Bachelors.

Bachelors can be found roaming at large in all parts of the world. They inhabit apartments, clubs, open fields, bodies of water and music halls. They are also seen behind the scenes. They hover at times near front gates, and have been found in back parlors with the aid of a search-light.

Bachelors are nomadic by nature and variable in their tastes, never going with one girl long enough to be dangerous. They flourish in large cities and are generally used at dinner parties to fill in with.

Every bachelor was once a baby—being the single instance of where history does not repeat itself.

Bachelors are divided into two classes—selfish and unselfish—those who are unborn being the unselfish.

The open season for bachelors is in the summer time, but on account of their wily natures they are not easily lured from their haunts for more than two weeks at a time, and are likely to elude the pursuer.

Bachelors make love easily but rarely keep it. Rich bachelors are hunted openly and shamelessly, and are always in great danger. Those who finally escape are as a rule useless ever afterwards.

There can be no doubt that the bachelor is a menace to civilization. The fact that he leaves nothing to be desired in the long run counts against him.

Every bachelor should be licensed, and compelled not to exceed the speed limit.—Tom Masson in The Delineator.
